RE: Article 6 Information Request- Portland Streetcar

Pursuant to Article 6 of the collective bargaining agreement between Portland State University and PSU-AAUP and the agreements reached to resolve UP-045-08, we request the following information that is necessary to bargain and enforce the Collective Bargaining Agreement.

1. The current and all previous contracts between Portland State University and the Portland Streetcar.
2. All proposals that are under consideration by either or both parties for the renewal contract between Portland State University and the Portland Streetcar.
3. All proposals or terms that have been formally rejected by one or the other party for the renewal contract between Portland State University and the Portland Streetcar.
4. All written communications, including emails, between any PSU employee and the Portland Streetcar about the renewal contract or any possible terms either party desired in the renewal contract.
5. All written communications, including emails, between Dan Zalkow and/or Ian Stude and any other administrator about the free ridership benefit in the current contract as it would relate to its' inclusion in the renewal contract.
6. The University's estimates of the cost to the University for FY 2017-18 of continued free ridership on the Streetcar for all PSU-AAUP members who currently use it.

I look forward to hearing from you.
